LODGES PLANNING GALA CHRISTMAS

Entertainments for Children Will Be Held Throughout Holiday Week

Fraternal organizations of the city are planning to make this the greatest Christmas ever had here, and are being taken by the various orders toward big and complete celebration in many different ways.

Members of Lexington Lodge, No. 30, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will have a big Christmas tree to-day at 2 o'clock at 117 West Main street, for the children of members and their families.

The committee on finance has already secured sufficient funds to insure the success of the affair from individual subscriptions by members and the committee on arrangements has started work of decorating the hall.

Santa Claus will be present in person to distribute the gifts to the children and it is whisper that he will bring with him a big Christmas dinner. The public is invited to attend the entertainment on Christmas Eve, which will be opened on the following Sunday, the public being also invited to be present at that time.

Lexington Lodge, No. 281, Odd Fellows, is planning a real old time Christmas celebration Friday night at 7:30 o'clock with a Christmas tree and old Santa Clause appearing on the scene via the chimney route. The celebration will be held in Fraternity Hall in the Masonic Temple, on North Broadway.

A big Christmas dinner will be held for the seventy-two children at the Pythian Home either Christmas Eve or Christmas Day. No plans have been made for a tree at the home on account of the recent serious illness of Superintendent H. L. Fuller.

Bakery Getting Ready.

Ben Hur Temple, No. 203, Pythagian Sisters, of Richmond, will hold its big ceremonial and dedication exercises on Monday, December 29.

This is the great Dokey Christmas ceremonial and is to be held as a dedication of the new Pythian Castle, which is to be opened on North Upper street.

Deputy Grand T. Murrow will make the pilgrimage across the scorching sands to the tavern of Ben Ali Temple to-day. But not alone will he travel for more than 100 Tyrians are listed to make the dread journey.

In Masonic circles Webb Commandery, No. 2, will hold the usual service observed each Christmas in every commandery in the United States at the same hour, at which time and with the same ceremonies all members pledge the health of the Grand Master in pure water.

Knights of Pythias.

Thomas Lodge, of Lexington, is spending $25,000 in its new Castle Hall. It will be furnished in elegant style and will be a credit to the lodge and the order. Visiting members will be welcome to the club and lodge rooms. All three Lexington Pythian Lodges will have a home in the new Castle, which is located in the heart of town, on North Upper street, between Short and Church streets.

A movement is on foot to revive Excelsior Lodge, No. 41, at Harrodsburg. If movement should prove successful, Puritan Lodge, No. 196, is considering plans for the erection of Castle Hall and as the lodge is in a very prosperous condition it is thought the plan will meet with success.

Mountain Lodge, No. 382, Arbay, will install officers publicly in December and an invitation is extended to all Grand Lodge officers to be present. This lodge reports an increase of eleven members since July 1.

Masonic.

The following officers have been selected for Oleika Temple, Lexington Shrine: M. D. Regan, potentate; Winchester C. D. Adams, chief rabban; Gus L. Seymour, assistant rabban; Jim Slowman, high priest and prophet; Tevis Lutes, L. L. Roberts, oriental guide; Theodore L. Jones, recorder; John C. Cramer, treasurer; Charles Knight, first ceremonial master; Nicholasville, Chas Johnson, second ceremonial master; Clay Rutherford, marshal; Purser H. S. Bartlett, captain of guard, Winchester; Joseph Pleasant, outer guard; Jess Bennett, director.

Representative to the Imperial Council at Portland, Ore., M. D. Rose, Winchester; Dr. H. H. McCoskey, Irvine, and Conrad Mauser, Lexington.

Lexington Lodge, No. 331, is receiving petitions and conferring degrees regularly nearly every meeting and expects this prosperity to continue on through 1920.

The election of officers in this lodge will take place December 31.

The following officers have been elected for the new term beginning January 1, 1920, for Bethesda Encampment, No. 26: Worthy patriarch, past chief patriarch; George O. Johnson, chief patriarch; Carl A. Tomkins, high priest; R. E. C. Hunter, senior warden; A. H. Phillips, junior warden; W. L. Dawson, scribe; F. L. Bedford, treasurer; Mooney.

Eugene E. Cowles, Deputy Supervisor of the Moose, leaves Wednesday to take up the work of organizing a Moose lodge in Frankfort and Scottsville. Mr. Cowles conferred with Governor Morrow Tuesday and says he has been assured by his excellency that the organization of the Moose in the above cities will receive both his hearty moral and material support and that they may be considered at the service of the Moose if at any time he can help in any way.

The Governor has gone on record as a charter member of the Frankfort Club as has Mayor W. S. Rosser and many other prominent men of affairs of Frankfort.

The Lexington Club is now well under way, having club rooms equipped and in daily operation. The local order has more than 100 members and new applications are being placed on file each week. Benjamin Tiernan of St. Louis has been elected to membership of the local week by Mr. Crenshaw during his absence and no Mr. Tiernan has a great many personal friends in Lexington it is expected he will secure excellent results in the work here.

At their regular weekly meeting at the Moose Home Wednesday night it was decided to entertain at the club of the holiday season that the next meeting would be held some time after the first of the year and would be a call meeting. Dictator S. E. Smith states the membership goal of 500 is being rapidly approached.

PUBLIC SALE

OF ONE OF THE BEST IMPROVED FARMS IN SCOTT COUNTY, ON

TUESDAY, DEC. 23, 10 a. m., on the premises

The picture does not do justice to this residence as we think it is one of the most complete homes in the county. The farm comprises 72 acres, all of which is in Blue Grass, with the exception of 25 acres, which is in corn. Every acre of this farm will grow the very choicest of tobacco, as but very little tobacco has ever been grown on this place.

This place will be subdivided and sold in three tracts to suit the purchaser. There are all kinds of outbuildings, including a 7-acre tobacco barn, a splendid orchard, two cisterns at the residence and one at the barn, with never failing running water through the entire farm. The place is well fenced and all the improvements are No. 1.

This farm is located 5 miles from Georgetown, 12 miles from Lexington and 12 miles from Paris on the Georgetown and Paris pike and just outside the limits of Newtown. Where they have graded schools, churches, stores, shipping point, etc.

This farm has been owned by the owners for over half century and is only being sold now on account of a recent death in the family. For further information see the owners, who reside on the property, S. Hardin Lucas and son; Bolivar Bond & Sons, of Versailles; or Stone & Buckley, 620 S. Broadway, Lexington, Ky.

At the same time and place we will sell two milch cows; three Percheron mares, bred to jack; 100 pure bred Plymouth Rock chickens, 100 shocks of corn and fodder; farming implements of all kinds. Also buggy, carriages, harness, etc. Also household and kitchen furniture, including some rare antiques and a no-wnalleable steel range.

Terms liberal, and made known on day of sale.
